Do not despise these small beginnings... Zec. 4:10 NLT

Do not despise these small beginnings, for the LORD rejoices to see the work begin, to see the plumb line in Zerubbabel's hand. (

v10 (1) The foundation is a poor gauge to establish an opinion about the specifics of the final building.

What small beginning is in your life that you believe God is wanting to develop?

v10 (2) God finishes things He blesses, and the dream that is bigger than you is waiting for you to begin.

What are your dreams? Dream big! It's how you can see God work in your life.

v10 (3) God loves to work through the hands of the redeemed and forgiven. He loves backing up the words of the righteous.

Are you paralyzed by the fear of making a mistake?

TIFAW I have a dream bigger than myself that only God can accomplish. I am redeemed, forgiven, and righteous, and God is working through me. For nothing is impossible with God.
